PEACE WEEK TO BE OBSERVED ON CAMPUS

A variety of activities will be held next week to observe Peace Week, sponsored by the Coalition for a Peaceful Co-existence, the Newman Club and the Associated Students.

Congressman George Brown will talk Monday about world peace, the arms race and hunger. Tuesday will feature a film, "Excuse Me, America," which is about poverty in third world countries as seen through the eyes of Dom Helder Camera, archbishop of Recife, Brazil. On Wednesday, the Rev. Wayne King, a Maryknoll priest from Los Angeles, will speak about world hunger. All of these events will be held at noon on the Student Union Multipurpose Room.

Thursday will be marked by a fast by members of the Coalition for Peaceful Coexistence, joined by some members of the Newman Club. The money normally spent for food that day will be donated to OXFAM America, the American chapter of a relief organization which will sponsor a worldwide fast day.

A dance at 9 p.m., Thursday, in the SUMP Room will conclude the week's observance. Admission to the dance will be nonperishable food items. This food and food collected during a campuswide drive held during the week will be given to Option House for battered wives and the St. Vincent de Paul Society, which operates an open kitchen for indigent people.

Faculty, staff, students and anyone else interested in contributing to the drive may do so by taking food to the basket in the Student Union, or by calling the AS Office at Ext. 7494 to have their donations picked up.

WINTER QUARTER ADVISEMENT SET

Advisement for winter quarter will be Thursday and Friday, Nov. 19 and 20, and Monday-Wednesday, Nov. 23-25. Registration packets will be available during the advisement period from 8 a.m.-6 p.m. in the Admissions Lobby in the Student Services Building.

After Nov. 25, packets can not be obtained until registration for winter quarter, which is Jan. 4 and 5. Winter quarter class schedules are now on sale in the Bookstore.

For advisement, students in the Schools of Humanities, Natural Sciences and Social and Behavioral Sciences should contact the department of their major for procedures and appointments. Students in the School of Education may either visit advisors during their office hours or contact the School of Education for appointments. In the School of Administration, graduate students who feel they need advisement may call the school office. Undergraduate students, if they desire advisement, may contact the department of their major for an appointment.

The fall quarter ends with final exams Dec. 7-10. Grades are due Dec. 14.

APPLICATIONS DUE MONDAY FOR SABBATICAL LEAVES

Monday is the deadline for submitting applications for sabbatical leave during the 1982-83 academic year. The applications must be submitted to Dr. J.C. Robinson, associate vice president for academic affairs. Sabbatical award recipients will be announced in mid-December.

All qualified faculty members have been sent applications and an explanation of the evaluation criteria. A minimum of six years of continuous service in an academic or academic-administrative position is required.

Information regarding the application and the evaluation process may be obtained from Dr. Robinson's office, Ext. 7510.

COLLOQUIUM SCHEDULED ON SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Dr. Barbara A. Gutek, author of a book titled Women and Work: A Psychological Perspective, will speak about "Sexual Harassment on the Job" at noon, Thursday, Nov. 19 in PS 122.

Dr. Gutek recently completed a survey on sexual harassment and was keynote speaker at a conference on sexual harassment of women on the job, held in Nevada. She has published extensively in the area of organizational psychology. Dr. Gutek, who holds a Ph.D. in organizational psychology from the University of Michigan, is an associate professor of psychology at Claremont Graduate School.

Members of the college community and others interested are welcome to attend. The colloquium is being sponsored by the Psychology Department and Psi Chi.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE FOR MAMMOTH SKIING IS NOV. 20

The annual Escape ski trip to Mammoth will be Sunday-Thursday, Dec. 13-17. Registration is limited to 40, so people who would like to join the fun are urged to sign up early. Students on this campus will have first priority. Registration is being taken at the Student Union desk through Friday, Nov. 20.

The trip, scheduled during the quarter break, includes not only an opportunity to ski down the slopes of Mammoth Mountain, but also luxury accommodations at Chateau D'Oex, complete with kitchen facilities and tableware, sauna and spa. Four to six people will share a room.

The Cal State van and private vehicles will leave the Physical Education Building parking lot at 10:30 a.m., Dec. 13, and return to Cal State by about 5 p.m., Dec. 17. The $65 per person cost does not include lift tickets ($19) or food.

The California State College, San Bernardino BULLETIN is published Fridays by the Public Affairs Office, AD 117, Ext. 7558. Items for publication should be received in writing by noon Tuesday.

EVENING SERVICES PLANS OPEN HOUSE

The Evening Services Office will have an open house from 5:45-8 p.m., Tuesday and Wednesday. Located in LC 107, the office assists evening students with many of the services offered during the day.

Information is available there about college regulations, waivers of regulations, academic programs and activities. Students can request transcripts, drop courses, file graduation checks, change majors and pick up GRE/GMAT booklets. Parking decals are available at the office. Class schedules may be purchased there.

COMEDY PRODUCTION ENTERS FINAL WEEK

Seats are still available for the Theatre Arts Department's fall production, "The Knight of the Burning Pestle." An amusing farce written in the 1600s, the play is scheduled tonight, tomorrow and next Tuesday-Saturday in the Theatre.

Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. Dr. Ronald Barnes is the director.

Season tickets for the three drama productions this year are available through the Theatre Arts Department at $8 for general admission and $4 for students and senior citizens. Individual performance tickets, which are available at the door, are $3.50 general, $1.75 students and senior citizens.

SUPER SPORTS IS TOMORROW

Spectators are welcome to cheer on their favorite teams during the Super Sports events from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. tomorrow on campus. Teams of eight students will compete in such events as volleyball, an 880 relay obstacle course, a Frisbee relay and tug-of-war.

Today is the final day for competitors to register for the activities. Registration is being taken until noon in the Physical Education Building, Room 122. All activities are free.

PERSONAL HOLIDAY DEADLINE NEARS

Employees who have not taken their personal leave day have until Dec. 31 to do so or lose the time off. Unlike vacation and floating holidays, personal leave days cannot be carried into the new year.

Anyone hired as a full-time employee before the end of 1981 is eligible for one eight-hour day off with pay. Part-time employees are entitled to proportional time.

WANTED: OWNERS OF FOUND ITEMS

Lost a typewriter lately? The College Police would like people on campus to check with them if they have misplaced items. The department has more than 100 articles which were found on campus, including several umbrellas, shoes, jackets and other apparel, many books and the typewriter. Soon the department will dispose of these items.

CAREER PLANNING
WORKSHOP NOV. 18

New Student Services, in cooperation with Career Planning and Placement and other departments, is offering a Freshman Career Planning Workshop from 2-4:30 p.m., Wednesday, in Student Union Meeting Rooms A and B.

The program has been designed to help freshmen gain insight into the various aspects of career choice, including how values, interests, skills and experience create career possibilities.

Freshmen may request additional information or sign-up by calling the Activities Office at Ext. 7407 or by stopping by the office in SS-122.

GRANT AWARDED FOR TEACHING WORKSHOP

The Danforth Foundation has awarded a grant of $756 for a workshop on self-paced teaching, to be coordinated by Drs. Vivien Bull (French and Liberal Studies) and Mireille Rydell (French).

The day-long workshop, scheduled for Jan. 23, will be designed for teachers of all grade levels. Anyone from this campus is welcome to attend. More information will be provided at a later date.

MATH PLACEMENT TEST DATES ARE ANNOUNCED

Students and their faculty advisors should mark on their calendars Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 4 and 5 as the days the math placement test will be administered. Testing will begin at 9 a.m. in B1 101. Tests are approximately 30 minutes in duration. Any student who has not taken the placement test should do so prior to registering for any math class. Questions should be directed to the Math Department, Ext. 7351.

CHRISTMAS ART SALE DATES SET

Persons already thinking about Christmas shopping may want to keep in mind the annual Christmas Art Sale. This year, it will be Dec. 1-3, with the traditional raku lunch on the final day. Specific times and locations will be announced later.

DONE ANYTHING OF INTEREST?

The Public Affairs Office welcomes word of faculty and staff achievements and special projects that may be of interest to the public. Information on these accomplishments and undertakings should be outlined briefly in writing and submitted to the office to initiate an item for The Bulletin and a news release to the media. The Public Affairs Office (Ext. 7558) is in AD 117.

SPEAKING OUT

Drs. Francesca Bero and T. Patrick Mullen (Education) made a presentation titled "Integrating Reading, Writing and Handwriting Through Language Experience for the Learning Disabled Child" at the CANHC-ACLD 1981 state Conference on Learning Disabilities. The conference was held Nov. 7 in Los Angeles.
